

Hunch Power is an Alternative Rock band from the thriving Nottingham music scene. Their songs are "hunch-powered" with unpredictable turns while being ridiculously catchy and reminiscent of Against Me, Manic Street Preachers, The Gaslight Anthem, Green Day, The Clash and of course Bruce Springsteen.

Their lyrics channel the concerns of our times and their impact on individual lives. Songs brewed in a dysfunctional World where topics such as Mental Health, Climate Change, racism, war, death, work-life balance and social media isolation do matter.

Their debut single instantly caught the attention of the music press in 2022. BBC Introducing premiered it on radio in the UK while the legendary Rodney Bingenheimer premiered it on Sirius XM (The Underground Garage) in the US. Its iconic music video premiered online on Vive Le Rock!.

They've shared stages with up-and-coming acts such as ALT BLK ERA, Random Hand, Seán McGowan, Slackrr and their peers PET NEEDS,

They played a live-stream to raise funds for the War Child charity on the Hot Vox YouTube channel in May 2023 followed by a busy festival season across the UK including Dot to Dot, Call of the Wild and Right to Roam.

After a brief hiatus they're back with a reformed line-up and their powerful comeback single "All I Do Is Survive" which Frank Turner mixed and mastered. They're bound to present it live across venues and festivals in spring-summer 2025.
